Re: United States v. Nosson Sklar
25 MJ 1186

Dear Honorable Krause:

I am writing on behalf of Nosson Sklar, who had an initial appearance on April 11, 2025, in front of the Honorable Victoria Reznik. At Mr. Sklar's initial appearance, Mr. Sklar was released with the understanding that, on or before April 25, 2025, one financially responsible individual would sign an unsecured appearance bond in the amount of $100,000. Mr. Sklar has identified possible co-signers but he will not be able to complete the bond-signing process by April 25, 2025.<sup>1</sup> As a result, I am writing to respectfully request that the deadline for Mr. Sklar to secure a co-signer be extended one week to May 2, 2025. I have communicated with AUSA David Markewitz and Mr. Markewitz informed me that the Government does not object to this request.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

//s

<sup>1</sup> While there are a number of reasons that Mr. Sklar needs additional time, the main reason is that the potential co-signers are all Orthodox Jews and, due to the Passover holiday, Mr. Sklar was unable to make contact with these individuals until after Passover had ended on April 20, 2025.
